Brown comes in off its first Ivy win: down 31-17 to Cornell after three quarters on Oct. 24, it scored 21 straight points, tied it with 36 seconds left and won 38-31 in overtime on Matt Childs' 25-yard run. James Murphy, who had not thrown a touchdown pass all season, threw three. The defense that allowed 13.2 points a game through five games gave up 31 (ESPN; Brown game notes, Oct. 22).

Penn leaders (2026, through their last game)

- Passing: #12 Miles Teodecki — 85/156, 763 yds, 4 TD, 3 INT

Penn is in its first season under head coach Rick Santos. Freshman quarterback Miles Teodecki won the job before the opener, hurt his knee against Howard, and came back to throw two touchdown passes in a 24-21 win over Yale on Oct. 23, when Penn intercepted Dante Reno four times and shut Yale out in the second half (ESPN; The Philadelphia Inquirer). Penn's defense allows about 270 yards a game (ESPN).
